INTRODUCTORY

As we publish this small list we wish to notify our patrons that the business in changing its name is now the exclusive possession of Mrs. M. W. Johansen and her two sons, and as such we wish to assure our friends in the trade that in the future, as in the past, no expense nor care will be considered too great to produce seeds of the very best and finest quality, and we solicit the continued patronage of our customers with whom we have had to deal the past 22 years.
